To the parents of the Miracle on 34th Street Company for their patience, understanding, and support.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

We would like to begin by thanking you for coming to the Scranton Prep Players production of MIRACLE ON 34TH STREET. It is because of your interest and support that we are able to do what we love and continue to perform here in our Bellarmine Theater.

As many of you may know, our production was postponed and we have had four weeks of preparation for this show. We are grateful that we, the Prep Players, have had the honor of working with a 2006 Prep graduate and current Broadway director, Mr. Michael Bradshaw Flynn. Our production would not be possible without the time, effort, and energy Mr. Flynn has dedicated to our show.

Michael Bradshaw Flynn began his drama career here in this theater. Throughout his four years at Scranton Prep, Michael participated in all eight productions, from 2002 to 2006. Michael involved himself in all aspects of the productions, from working on various crews to performing as the star of the show. Following his graduation from Scranton Prep, Michael continued his theatrical studies at the University of Scranton.

Michael's love of theater continued, and he took up residence in New York City. Recently, he used his talents as the Assistant Director for the Tony nominated Broadway revival of IT'S ONLY A PLAY, starring Nathan Lane, F. Murray Abraham, Stockard Channing, Rupert Grint, Megan Mullally and Micah Stock.

The Prep Plyers have learned so much from Michael. This production could not have taken place without his help and guidance.
